ESOPUS

“Reading Esopus is more akin to walking around an art gallery than flipping through a publication. While technically a magazine, in the sense that it’s a bound stack of paper, Esopus is a carefully curated collection of art, photography, writing, music, and other creative projects. The work included here is completely unmediated, and without the clutter that usually surrounds creative work, it’s nice to sit back with an issue and just breathe.”—Nancy Smith, The Rumpus

The Esopus Foundation Ltd. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that for the past decade has provided an unmediated forum through which creative people can connect directly with the general public. Its main activity is the publication of the award-winning arts publication Esopus.

Esopus includes artists’ projects, critical writing, fiction, poetry, visual essays, interviews, and, in each issue, a themed CD of new music. Esopus never features advertising or commercially driven content and is priced well below its actual cost of production so that it can be accessed by a wide range of readers. The Foundation therefore depends on support from individuals and organizations to sustain its efforts. Please consider making a contribution to the Esopus Foundation Ltd.: All donations are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law and will be noted both in the magazine and on the Foundation’s website, www.esopus.org.

Current and past funders of The Esopus Foundation Ltd. include The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, The Greenwall Foundation, The American Center Foundation, The Lily Auchincloss Foundation, The Peter and Carmen Lucia Buck Foundation, The Fifth Floor Foundation, The Fleishhacker Foundation, The Milton and Sally Avery Arts Foundation, Foundation for Contemporary Arts, The Coby Foundation, The Puffin Foundation, The Elizabeth Firestone Graham Foundation, The New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA), The New York City Department of Cultural Affairs (DCA), and The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).
